Note of FXFlat's Commission Business

FXFlat acts as a commission agent in accordance with the relevant and will accordingly execute CFD and FX spot transactions several UK-based market makers. For the pricing as well as the operations of the market makers, leading to the conclusion of transactions for the account of the customer between FXFlat and the market makers, we refer to the respective execution principles of the market makers. Please note the following: <https://www.fxflat.com/en/execution-policy/>

Confirmation of the correctness and timeliness of the information provided

The customer is responsible for the accuracy and timeliness of information and data provided by them. The customer is obliged to report any changes concerning the given information and data immediately.

Agreement for back settlement

A transaction can be reversed by FXFlat, if, at a later date an exchange or multilateral trading system cancels or changes the price of the underlying asset; the same applies if FXFlat has no hedging possibility, it being omitted or a market maker cancels or changes a transaction meant to serve the customer execution.

Agreement liquidation of contract

In the case of an insufficiently funded escrow account FXFlat has the right (but not obligation) to liquidate some positions (contracts) or all asset positions from the customer with the aim of ensuring an adequate coverage of the escrow account.

Agreement of providing information

The customer receives all information, communication and requests in the manner and form as declared in the special conditions; this is particularly the provision of information within the trading system and its postbox and, if specified and additionally desired, the customer's designated email address.

Notice that no investment advice will be provided

FXFlat provides no investment advice to the customer.

Notice about the responsibility of disturbances

Although FXFlat emanating from the stability of the trading platform, interference may occur. FXFlat is not responsible for disturbances caused by Force Majeure. Customers who value high safety are recommended to obtain an additional access to a spare trading platform.

Information on system requirements

The customer is obliged to procure the systems required for using the trading platform and keep them up to date.

Information on the security of the collective escrow account

The funds in the escrow account is a collection of funds provided by the customers in favor of FXFlat's security (margin); the herein provided funds by the customers may be used by FXFlat for proprietary trading with the customer or for the execution of transactions with a market maker in a commission business.

Notice about the separation of Assets

FXFlat will keep all customers' funds necessary for trading (security / margin) together on an escrow account in the name of FXFlat, separated from FXFlat's own assets.

Notice about sufficient coverage of the escrow account

The customer is obliged to constantly hold sufficient funds on the escrow accounts, according to necessary margin requirements. FXFlat will execute orders for and with the customer only, if the escrow account is sufficiently covered.

Notice of the pre- and post-trade cost transparency

Pre-trade transparency allows you to see the indicative costs before submitting an order. This should give you an idea about the total cost of the transaction after execution. As part of the post-trade cost transparency you will receive a list of all effectively incurred costs at least once a year.
