REQUEST LETTER: CATEGORISATION AS AN ELECTIVE PROFESSIONAL CLIENT

We would be grateful if you could provide Amana Capital Ltd with your request to be categorised as an Elective Professional Client by completing, signing and returning the form below.

From:

To: Amana Capital LTD

With reference to your notice letter datedand having read and understood the consequences the investor protections and compensation rights that will be lost as a result of re-classification as an Elective Professional Client as set out in the attached Schedule of Protections Lost. I confirm being aware of the consequences of losing such rights.

I also confirm that I possess the knowledge and experience to make my own investment decisions, including executing market transactions on the trading platform and I fully understand the risks involved in dealing with Over-the-Counter leveraged financial products.

I undertake to inform you of any changes that could affect categorisation as an Elective Professional Client, and the responsibility to ask you for a higher level of protection where a situation arises that would present an inability to properly assess or manage the risks involved, taking note that Amana Capital Ltd may be unable to transact with me as Retail Client.

I make these statements out of our own free will and have not been induced or placed under duress to make said statements. As a result, I request and agree to be categorised as an Elective Professional Client for the purposes of the Cyprus Securities & Exchange Commission ('CySEC') Authorities' Regulatory Regime in relation to Services described in your Notice Letter.
